CFHS FREDERIC A. McGRAND AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Created in 1985, the prestigious CFHS Frederic A. McGrand Award recognizes individuals who have made an outstanding contribution to animal welfare in Canada.

Past winners include wildlife rehabilitation pioneers Kay and Larry McKeever, animal welfare advocate and veterinarian Dr. Carol Morgan, farm animal welfare champions Tom and Sharon van Milligen amongst many others.

How to nominate:

A nominee for the CFHS Frederic A. McGrand Award must have made a significant contribution as a founder or builder of the animal welfare movement or otherwise have made a substantial contribution to animal welfare in Canada.

The nomination must include the following information:

1. A title page with full contact details about the nominee and nominator including:
 - o Name
 - o Address
 - o Phone and Cell Numbers
 - o E-mail address
2. A detailed description of the contributions made by the nominee to animal welfare and protection in Canada. This may include, but is not exclusive to, a narrative description by the nominee, newspaper articles, blog entries, media transcripts, articles or other supporting materials.
3. Two letters of reference to support the nomination.
4. A signature and date by the nominator.

All entries will be reviewed by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors and the award will be presented at their discretion.

Nominations must be postmarked no later than Friday April 20th 2012
