

MEMBERSHIP FEE STRUCTURE

CFHS membership fees vary from one animal welfare organization to another. The standard formula used to calculate membership fees is 2/5 of 1% of your organization's operational revenue – with a minimum fee of $50.00 and a maximum fee of $3,000.00

NOTE: Please do not include bequests, revenues originating from municipal contracts and funds collected in capital campaign efforts as part of your organization's total revenue when calculating your fee.

The following are some examples of the membership fee calculation:

Organization	Operational revenue	1% of operational revenue	Membership Fee is 2/5 of 1%
Organization A	$ 50,000	$ 500	$ 200
Organization B	$ 100,000	$ 1,000	$ 400
Organization C	$ 200,000	$ 2,000	$ 800
Organization D	$ 500,000	$ 5,000	$ 2,000

The maximum amount that one organization would pay per year is $3,000. This fee corresponds to an organization with a total revenue of $750,000 or more.

The minimum amount that one organization would pay per year is $50. This fee corresponds to an organization with a total revenue of $12,500 or less.

Dues Information

Annual membership fees are due in January of each calendar year. Societies who become members throughout the year will enjoy a pro-rated fee.

For example, if the annual membership fee for your organization amounts to $240, but you join the Federation in April, your fees will be calculated for the remaining nine months of the calendar year (April to December). The pro-rated fees amount to $180 in this case.

Discounts Available

As a NEW member of the CFHS, your organization will receive 15% off the membership fee for the first year.

The discounted price would apply as follows: If Organization B (listed above) subscribes in January, the fees will be $400. In appreciation of having them as a first time member, the CFHS will honour a 15% discount on their membership fee. Organization B would therefore only be paying $340. This membership fee discount is offered to organizations who wish to become members of the Federation and who have not been a member in the past.
